

NO LONGER

EMPTY

REVITALIZING SPACE, UNLOCKING CREATIVITY

APPLY TO BE A YOUNG EXHIBITION MAKER TODAY!

No Longer Empty curates bold, site-responsive exhibitions in unconventional locations across New York City.

What do teens do in the Young Exhibition Makers program?

- Curate your own art exhibition with local youth-made art
- Design and lead tours of the exhibition
- Attend weekly workshops in public speaking, creative writing, art appreciation and more
- Plan and host events for the community including art-making workshops
- Visit local cultural organizations and meet/work with Brooklyn-based artists

Who can apply? Youth 14-18 of all backgrounds and interests (prior arts experience not necessary)

Program Dates: March 2 - June 22: Saturdays 1-5pm at Kings County Hospital

Application Deadline Sunday February 17 at 11:59pm

Apply online <http://bit.ly/YEx2019>

Compensation $250 honorarium upon completion of the program. Travel and snacks provided

For more information Email Mica Le John at mica@nolongerempty.org.

Info Sessions: Saturday February 9, 1-3pm; Wednesday February 12, 4-6pm

451 Clarkson Ave in the C Building, ground floor, Room CG91 (near the E. 37th Street intersection)